

BREAKING BOUNDARIES III

STUDENT PORTFOLIO COMPETITION & EXHIBITION

CALL FOR ENTRIES:

2010 PINGYAO, CHINA INTERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY FESTIVAL

Photography students are invited to participate in this free juried exhibition of the best of American College and University student photography. 10 students will be selected to exhibit 5 images each and 3 will be chosen to exhibit 10 each. Accepted work will be exhibited at the 10th Annual Pingyao, China International Photography Festival, held each September in the 2,700-year-old walled village, a UNESCO World Heritage site. The festival attracts upwards of 100,000 international visitors, with exhibitions held in multiple venues including ancient temples, factories, and warehouses.

REQUIREMENTS:

Students are eligible to submit from 5 to 15 high resolution images (no size limitation) on a non-returnable CD(s) or DVD(s). Also included on the CD/DVD(s) must be low resolution jpeg (thumbnail) versions of the images, titles, sizes, contact information, identification of the college and degree program in which the student is enrolled, and a brief artist's statement suitable for translation into Chinese. Accepted entries will be printed and framed in China.
